Air Quality Forecast for the UK

Issued by the Met Office

Today: Brisk winds across much of the UK on Sunday, will ensure that air pollution levels remain Low for all parts.

Tomorrow: A wet day for much of the country, with rain spreading east, helping to keep air pollution levels Low across the UK.

Outlook: Low levels are expected across much of the UK. However light southeasterly winds could allow for some localised pockets of Moderate levels to develop across southern England on Thursday.
